

Donuts or Deals?

Which would you rather have?

Free donuts can be a nice perk, but we all know they can't help you sell more homes.

If you are interested in goodies that can help you sell more homes, here are some more palatable options:

- Many financing options to choose from
- Special loan programs that are designed to help more buyers qualify for a mortgage
- Highly competitive interest rates and fees
- Professional service

If you are more interested in closing deals than getting free donuts, we should team up.

And who knows... Perhaps in the end we can have Donuts and Deals!

Servicios hipotecarios en los que puede confiar y depender.

Aprendí hace mucho tiempo que el negocio hipotecario es mucho más que simplemente saber de números y del cálculo de tasas de interés. Es además ayudar a la gente a hacer sus sueños realidad. Yo no confío mis sueños a cualquiera, y no espero que usted lo haga. Por eso me gustaría que me diera la oportunidad de demostrarle mis conocimientos y habilidades, y que me diera además la posibilidad de ganarme su amistad y confianza—para que haga negocios con alguien que valora sus sueños.
